Barcelona, 4th August 2016. One of the Renta Corporación shareholders, which is an American group, has been increasing its portfolio in recent months to more than 5% of the capital of the real estate. This fund invests through Morgan Stanley, and today has informed the CNMV that already reaches 5.26% of the shares of Renta Corporación.

This group has been buying blocks of shares, among which the one that sold the company president, Luis Hernández de Cabanyes, 330,000 shares, who made a gesture to facilitate investor access.

This American group usually invests in companies with significant revaluation in the medium and long term, without getting into their governing bodies, and made a determined commitment to Renta Corporación.

Renta Corporación has closed the second quarter increasing its activity. The good performance of the company is generating interest and confidence of national and international investors.

About Renta Corporación

Renta Corporación is a listed real estate company with a differentiated business model based on creating value through the acquisition of real estate assets to transform and adapt them to the market needs, and then resale them to third parties. Renta Corporation focuses its business on the Madrid and Barcelona markets, the two most liquid and busiest locations in Spain.
